The present General Conditions of Sale (hereinafter referred to as "General Conditions"), together with the Seller's Offer (including every Offer's appendix, table and/or attachment) to which they are attached and of which they represent an integral and essential part, constitute the sole and entire agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Contract") between Tubigomma Torino S.p.A. (hereinafter referred to as "Seller") and the Purchaser related to the supply of products indicated in each "Seller's Offer" (hereinafter, even "Products"). Any modification or deviation from "General Conditions" must be agreed in writing and signed by both parties (hereinafter, the "Parties").

These General Conditions shall prevail over any different term or conditions unless articles of the present conditions of sale are expressly repealed in part in writing.

Moreover, in case of conflict between any appendix, table and/or attachment to the Seller's Offer and the Seller's Offer itself, this latter shall prevail.

Art. 1 – RECITALS: The present General Conditions of Sale shall regulate all present and future contracts of sale between the Seller and the Purchaser. When the General Conditions apply to a specific contract, modifications or deviations from them must be agreed in writing.

Art. 2 – PURCHASE ORDER: 2.1. The purchase orders collected by the Seller or by his agents and/or commercial intermediaries become binding only when the Purchaser receives (also by fax or by e-mail) the written acceptance (order confirmation) from the Seller. 2.2. If the order confirmation sent by the Seller in accordance with this article is different from the Purchaser order sent by the Purchaser, the Purchaser has to send (also by fax or by e-mail) to the Seller an express written acceptance of the new conditions. In any case the receipt of the goods ordered shall be considered as entire acceptance of the present conditions of sale. 2.3. In case of offer by the Seller the offer will have a validity of only 60 days for its confirmation and will be ineffective after this date. 2.4. The present general conditions of sale shall prevail over any different term or condition unless articles of the present conditions of sale are expressly repealed in part in writing.

If the Purchaser will not pay the owing amount within three months, the Seller will have the right, upon prior written communication to the Purchaser, to withdraw from the contract and to obtain from the Purchaser the compensation of damages. 4.5. In case of payment by installments, the lack of payment of even one installment will cause the loss of the respite of debt and will authorize the Seller to demand the immediate payment of the outstanding amount.

Art. 5 – RETENTION OF TITLE: 5.1. The Products shall remain the property of the Seller until the complete payment of the purchase price. 5.2. The Purchaser shall at the request of the Seller assist him in taking any necessary measures to protect the Seller's title on his own Products. 5.3. Upon the Seller's request, the Purchaser binds itself to supply the documents that prove the valid establishment of the retention of title on the goods. 5.4. The retention of title will not damage the risk's transfer as provided in art. 6 hereafter. 5.4. In the event that the Purchaser transforms the unpaid Products into a new item or part thereof, the Seller shall have a property right in the new item, proportionate to the value of the unpaid Products in the new item, until it has received full payment for the original Products.

Art. 6 – DELIVERY: 6.1. The Seller will deliver the Products within the date indicated in the order confirmation. 6.2. The delivery of the products is always considered performed with the communication that the goods are at Purchaser's disposal, or that they have been delivered to the carrier for the transportation. Unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, the delivery shall be Ex-works (EXW) (ICC INCOTERMS 2020 ICC), also in case in which the Supplier will organize the delivery. In this last case the Purchaser will incur any costs and the risks of the transport.

The Test takes place in a day agreed by the Seller and the Purchaser, but within 8 days of delivering the Products. If the Test is positive and the Purchaser verifies the compliance of the Products to the technical specifications, Parties shall sign immediately a written declaration of compliance. If the Test is not positive and the Purchaser does not determine the compliance of the Products to the technical specifications, the Seller shall adopt all the necessary measures and, afterwards, the Test shall be repeated. 7.3. If the further Test will be positive, Parties shall sign immediately a written declaration of compliance. 7.4.
